

IAIABC Membership Benefits

Resources

Enjoy instant access to “members only” resources on www.iaiabc.org. Resources are developed frequently by IAIABC members, committees, staff, and industry experts. Some examples include:

- Self-Insurance Regulators’ Handbook
- Profiles of the Dispute Resolution Process in Kansas, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Washington, and Wisconsin
- Opioid Policy Inventory
- Cannabis Fast Facts
- IAIABC/WCRI Workers’ Compensation Laws Survey
- A Discussion on the Use of a Formulary paper
- Understanding the Opt-Out Alternative paper
- Perspectives quarterly digital magazine
- EDI Implementation Guides, models, and companion guides (Jurisdictional and EDI members)
- Independent Medical Exams survey
- Reducing Inappropriate Opioid Use in Treatment of Injured Workers paper
- Return to Work: A Foundational Approach to Return to Function paper

Education and Training

Members receive discounted registration rates to IAIABC educational programming held throughout the year, both in-person and web-based.

- IAIABC Convention (annual fall meeting)
- The Forum (annual spring meeting)
- IAIABC Foundations of Workers’ Compensation Administration Program (open to Jurisdictional members only)
- Complimentary member webinars on hot industry topics
- EDI training module subscription (subscription available to all members, discounted for U.S. Jurisdictional and EDI members)

Connections

Be part of one of the largest networks of workers’ compensation jurisdictional administrators and managers, carriers, medical providers, and technical experts.

- Over 60 Jurisdictional members from the U.S., Canada, Germany, Australia, Korea, and Taiwan
- Over 150 Associate and EDI member organizations
- Member database including more than 2,500 individual contacts

Committees

IAIABC committees are an excellent way to engage in dialogue and discussion on specific workers’ compensation policy areas and develop informational resources for the IAIABC membership and workers’ compensation industry. IAIABC members can actively participate in committee discussions and projects. Committees include:

- Board of Directors (voted on by IAIABC membership, positions open to Jurisdictional members only)
- Associate Member Council
- EDI Council (Jurisdictional and EDI members)
- Disability Management and Return to Work
- Dispute Resolution
- EDI Claims (Jurisdictional and EDI members)
- EDI Medical and EDI Medical Provider to Payer (Jurisdictional and EDI members)

- 🌱 EDI Proof of Coverage (Jurisdictional and EDI members)
- 🌱 EDI Systems and XML Task Group (Jurisdictional and EDI members)
- 🌱 International
- 🌱 Medical Issues
- 🌱 Regulation
- 🌱 Research and Standards

Discussion Forums and Online Communities

Participate in members-only forums to discuss common workers' compensation issues with your peers, providing incredible value in hearing what other organizations are doing about similar challenges.

Participate in:

- 🌱 Jurisdictional EDI conference calls
- 🌱 Jurisdiction to Jurisdiction community: jurisdictional staff ask regulatory, administrative, and legislative questions and share information
- 🌱 Jurisdictional News and Notices community: share updates about public forums, open meetings, etc.
- 🌱 EDI General Interest community: share updates and information about state plans regarding EDI
- 🌱 EDI Standard communities: each EDI standard has a community to discuss proposed changes

News and Information

News updates help your organization stay on top of what's happening in other jurisdictions and private sector organizations in the industry. The IAIABC culls through the news to find stories that may be of particular interest to the workers' compensation regulatory community.

- 🌱 Monthly "Accidentally" podcast
- 🌱 News, resource, and educational emails
- 🌱 Notices about IAIABC projects and activities in special interest areas

Standard Development and Access

IAIABC EDI members are encouraged to take an active role in the development and management of EDI standards through submitting issues and voting on changes to the Standards. Access to EDI Standard Implementation Guides is a valuable member benefit. (Jurisdictional and EDI members)

- 🌱 Voting rights on all Issue Resolution Requests (proposed changes to EDI Standards)
- 🌱 Opportunity to participate in EDI committees and EDI Council

Standard License

Jurisdictional and EDI members will have the EDI Standard license included with their memberships (when applicable). (Jurisdictional and EDI members)

Support

Receive assistance from IAIABC staff and fellow members on workers' compensation questions, papers, presentations and surveys. Many member resources stem from questions received from members about regulation or administration of workers' compensation.
